PLAY OF THE DAY - Race 10

(Alberta Diamond 3YO Fillies Final)

7 ROCKIN MYSTERY (M/L Odds 3-1) did all the grunt work up front a week ago in the elimination only to get gunned by a short neck down at the wire by the pocket sitting (4) HOTTIEONTHEHORIZON (Hoerd) in a final time of 1:55.4 (with sizzling fractions of 57 flat and 1:26.1). Her previous start on June 15 was eye-catching as Rockin Mystery established a new track standard in the inaugural $50,000 Shirley McClellan Breeders Stakes Final for three-year-old pacing fillies. The mile was timed in 1:53.1, a new lifetime mark for Rockin Mystery and a new track record for three-year-old pacing fillies. The former track standard of 1:54 was co-held by No Mo Fo Joe and Scardy Cat. The three-year-old daughter of Mystery Chase faces a talented field and has an outside post but will look to bounce back from last week's effort for the final today. A switch in driver as Brandon Campbell will now call the shots for the 2018 Alberta Rising Star Award winner Chris Lancaster barn.
